"A generous man will himself be blessed."

~Proverbs 22:9

Church Annual Budget Meeting Sunday December 8th after service.

Pray in Faith

(Hebrews 11:1; Colossians 4:12; Ephesians 6:18)
following the Holy Spirit in all things, trusting in the power of God. Prayer moves the heart of God.

Abide and grow in the Word daily*

(Hebrews 4:12; Ephesians 4:12; 2 Timothy 3:16)
We believe in both the logos (written word) and rhema (spoken word of God), of which logos is the ultimate authority. The written Word is inspired, infallible and perfect. As we listen, God speaks to us and when we speak His Word, His power is released into the world."

Worship God, with all our hearts, minds and souls*

(John 4:23; Deuteronomy 6:5; Luke 10:27; Matthew 22:37)
We worship God extravagantly in freedom according to how He moves in each person, be it in song, dance, raising the hands, moving in the arts, and listening to the whispers of God. Worship is a way of life, not an event.

Love others with the love of God*

(Galatians 5:6; John 15:12; Romans 12:9-13)
Through His unconditional love, we love; bringing healing to all, as we do life together.

Minister through the Gifts of the Holy Spirit*

(1Corinthians 14:31; 1Corinthians 12:7-11)
Through training, impartation and equipping, all believers are encouraged to receive the gifts, which are active and available to all. The gifts are used to edify, encourage, guide, strengthen and heal members of the body. Though there are many gifts, there is one Spirit who distributes them and unites them to bring glory to God.

Invite all into relationship with Christ*

(Acts 1:8; Luke 19:10; 2Corinthians 4:6; John 3:16-19; John 4:48)

So that none are lost, we as lightbearers, are ALL called to illuminate and transform this dark world through the power of the Gospel of salvation. We stand ready to do this in love through testimony, friendship, and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit manifest in signs, wonders and miracles.
